

The Watauga Democrat,

D. H. Dougherty, Editor.
E. C. Bivens, Publisher

Some of the Alliance men are claiming now that they will have fifty members in the Fifty-second Congress. It may be so. They will get seven from North Carolina probably, and they will all be elected as Democrats. We see no danger in this.—Press and Carolinian.

Coughs and colds come uninvited, but you can quickly get rid of these, with a few doses of Dr. J. H. McLean's tar wine lung balm.

The Clerk of the Superior Court in New Hanover county has sent a man to jail for 30 days and fined him $250 for contempt of his court. That sort of judgment will learn some people what respect is due to law and order, when nothing else will do so.—Press and Carolinian.

The most delicate constitution can safely use Dr. J. H. McLean's tar wine lung balm, it is a sure remedy for coughs, loss of voice, and all throat and lung diseases.

In the next presidential election the National Democrat claims that at least Montana and Idaho, of the new States, will cast their six electoral votes for the democratic nominee. It claims Rhode Island also, whose four votes are confidently expected. And New York and Indiana. This will give the democrats 224 electoral votes to 196 for the republicans.

A Curious "Crittter."

An animal of the most singular appearance was seen near the "World Rock Cave" on the Brushies last Saturday. It was a sluggish-looking monster about 7 feet long and 3 feet high. On its head were 4 horns, two turning downward under its jaws the other two standing erect over 2 feet high. It had no hair except on its head, and its body had the appearance of a mass of warts. It had a tail like an opossum and feet like a man. It seemed very much frightened when the writer came across it.—Comet.

The "Life of the flesh is the blood thereof," pure blood means healthy functional activity and this bears with it the certainty of quick restoration from sickness or accident. Dr. J. H. McLean's strengthening cordial and blood purifier gives pure rich blood, and vitalizes and strengthens the whole body. 1.00 per bottle.

CAPT. T. C. EVANS DEAD.

Special to News and Observer.
REIDSVILLE, N. C., Sept. 2.—Capt. Thomas Clancy Evans, one of the most widely known editors in the State, died here at 2:10 o'clock this morning of a complication of diseases, principally malaria. For the past eight months he has been employed in the census department at Washington. He returned home three weeks ago with a prostration and a sixty days' sick leave, and was taken very sick on arrival. He was not quite 51 years of age and died a peaceful and painless death, with a Christian hope.

Is LIBERTY Lost?

A Congress which does not permit debate, and which slavishly obeys the mandates of a few bullies like Reed and Ingalls, has lost its liberties as truly as though they had been taken away from it by a man on horseback. That it has surrendered them of its own accord does not change the situation in the least. The wretches who have degraded the people in this manner must be dealt with by the people. Fifty years ago such creatures would not have ventured to face their constituents. Are we now so secure in our rights that we can safely tolerate the most impudent invasion of them? Is eternal vigilance no longer the price of liberty?—Chicago Times.

The Voice

Is easily injured—the slightest irritation of the throat or larynx at once affecting its tone, flexibility, or power. All efforts to sing or speak in public, under such conditions, become not only painful but dangerous, and should be strictly avoided until every symptom is removed. To effect a speedy cure no other medicine is equal to

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

The best of anodynes, this preparation rapidly soothes irritation, strengthens the delicate organs of speech, and restores the voice to its tone and power. No singer or public speaker should be without it. Lydia Thompson, the famous actress, certifies: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been of very great service to me. It improves and strengthens the voice, and is always effective for the cure of colds and coughs."

"Upon several occasions I have suffered from colds, causing hoarseness and entire loss of voice. In my profession of an auctioneer any affection of the voice or throat is a serious matter, but at each attack, I have been relieved by a few doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This remedy, with ordinary care, has worked such a
